Reflections from Collective Worship

On Wednesday we were visited by Rev Kirsten who spoke to the children about David in the Lion's Den. There was a law which said that you weren't allowed to pray to God but David did because he was truthful to himself and he trusted God. God protected David from the lions even though David was in a dangerous situation in the lion's den. The children reflected that they should always be truthful to themselves and their beliefs and not be swayed by other people.
